

Provincia: A Coruña Polígono 22

This is a detailed cadastral map of a rural area in Portugal, likely from the 19th century. The map shows numerous land parcels, each identified by a unique number. Key features include:

- Geographical Labels: 'Devesa' (a wooded area), 'Vilacoba', 'Agra Pena Grande', 'Agra Camo', 'Agra Fonte Miron', 'Agra do Carballo', and 'Agra Corredoiras' are labeled on the map.
- Administrative/Religious Labels: 'Parroquia de San Cristóvão de Eixo' is labeled in the lower-left quadrant.
- Parcel Numbers: The map contains a dense collection of parcel numbers, ranging from 1733 to 1828. Some parcels are further subdivided, indicated by numbers followed by a dash and a second number (e.g., 1739-2, 1747-2).
- Infrastructure: A network of roads or paths is shown, with some labeled 'Pº 10' and 'Pº 21'.
- Orientation: A compass rose is located in the upper right corner, indicating North (N).
- Shading: Certain areas, such as the 'Devesa' and some individual parcels, are shaded with diagonal lines to distinguish them from other land types.

NOTA:
Este plano parcial débese desglosar do título para ser unido ás escrituras en que consten as sucesivas transmisións da finca.